8 A. M. 15. 10 A. M. 17. 1 P. M. 18. 4 P. M. 19. 7 P. M. 20.

Now is the time to "put up" mud for summer use.

The "beautiful" came down at intervals during the entire day yesterday.

A STATED meeting of the Board of Commissioners will be held on Monday next.

The country singing school is again in vogue, and affords both pleasure and instruction to the ladies and ladies.

PERSONAL.—Miss Amy Stone, the actress, arrived in town last evening, and is a guest at the St. James Hotel.

THANKS.—To Hon. Geo. O. Davenport, for Legislative documents.
To Captain Ed. Hornbrook, for late New Orleans papers.

The English language does not contain words adequate to express the condition of the streets at the present time—we therefore won't attempt it.

With the exception of the excitement naturally incident to the breaking of a pencil point, the quiet in 'Squire Schult's' office is unbroken these informationless days.

POLICE COURT.—There was no business before this Court yesterday morning. Owing to the absence of witnesses Neal McKnight's case was continued until this morning.

DISMISSED.—Sam'l McConnell, charged with willful trespass upon the property of Alfred F. McKeg, was discharged yesterday by 'Squire Caldwell' at the cost of the complainant.

WITHDRAWN.—Prot. Hunter, who is advertised to lecture in this city, will not appear. A dispatch from Pittsburgh requests us to announce that his appointment here has been withdrawn.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—A man named James Cawman, while attending a horse in the Fifth Ward yesterday afternoon, was kicked in the stomach by the vicious animal and received serious internal injuries.

TRANSFERRING AT THE POSTOFFICE.—The Postoffice will be open to-morrow from 8 to 10 A. M. The carriers will make the usual morning delivery and collections, and an evening collection for the East and West mails at 5 P. M.

FOR TRAVELS.—Edward McConnell and John Johnson were held in $100 each by 'Squire Caldwell' yesterday, to appear at the County Court to answer to the charge of willful trespass upon the property of Alfred F. McKeg.

CIVIL COURT.—Yesterday the case of the Gas Company vs. the city occupied the attention of this Court all day. The jury was discharged until this morning, and consumed the time in arguing law points bearing upon the case.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—A new literary society has been organized, called the Alceus. Judge R. H. Cochran was chosen President, Prof. Z. C. Bundy Vice President, Miss Belle Maholin Secretary and W. J. W. Cowden, W. C. Duffield and Miss Mattie McKelvey Executive Committee. Its meetings are held every Thursday evening, in the Wheeling Musical Institute hall.

AT 'SQUIRE CALDWELL'S OFFICE.—Samuel McConnell, Edward McConnell and John Johnson, arrested by Constable G. W. DeWitt on peace warrants issued by Alfred F. McKeg, appeared before 'Squire Caldwell' yesterday charged with trespassing and sheep penning. Samuel McConnell was discharged, and the other two held in $100 each to keep the peace for six months.

GRAND BALL.—This evening the Second Annual Grand Ball of the Nati City Boat Club will be given at Turner Hall. These balls have been well patronized on all previous occasions, and we have no doubt Turner Hall will be crowded to-night. The names of the members of the different committees are well known to the large portion of the public, and are sufficient in themselves to insure success. The music will be furnished by J. J. Birch's celebrated quadrille band.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Last evening "The Duel in the Snow," and "Good-for-Nothing Nan" delighted the audience at the Opera House. The absence of several prominent members of the company is felt to some extent, but we understand their places will be filled by first class artists immediately. At the matinee this afternoon the splendid play of "Christmas Eve," and the comic play of "Nan, the Romp," will be presented. To-night the startling drama of "The Payre Lass of Kilduff," or the Maniac's Love, and the side-splitting farce of "The Spectre Bridegroom," or a Ghost in Spite of Himself, will be the attractions.

ATTRACTIVE PRICES.—The principal excitement prevailing throughout the city is about the liberal advertising of reduced prices by our leading dry goods house, of Messrs. I. Blum & Bro., at 1104 Main street, who are selling such beautiful dress and other fabrics at retail from ten to twenty-five per cent less than agents prices. In many cases the consumer buys far below the cost of production. One would hardly form the opinion, from the appearance of this retail house, which is daily packed with customers, that there is a stringency of money existing, but it seems evident that goods can be sold at prices as low enough. To all of our readers who wish to secure a superior article at less than usual prices, we take pleasure in recommending the well known dry goods house of I. Blum & Bro., whose enviable reputation throughout the city and country asserts more than we can write in this behalf.

ADAMS & LUCAS, 1227 Market street, have just received a large invoice of the latest and most popular Foreign Sheet Music, composed by the most celebrated authors. They are preparing for the holiday trade.

LAST CHANCE.—The sale of tickets in the Fourth Grand Gift Concert, for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, will positive close to-morrow, only about a dozen tickets remain in the hands of the agent in this city, and no sales will be made after to-morrow. If you have not secured a ticket, call on J. V. L. Rodgers, 1202 Market street and invest before they are all sold.

A CONVENIENT RESTAURANT.—Persons attending the Opera House entertainments will find it convenient to patronize Martin's Restaurant after the performance is over. Mr. Martin keeps on hand every thing in the eating line, which he serves up in the choicest manner. This is a first class resort for refreshments.

WE FEEL THAT WE ARE DOING OUR READERS a positive service in keeping them advised concerning articles of universal utility and necessity. We may not be the slaves of fashion, but no sensible person will be indifferent to comfort and comely personal appearance. A judicious expenditure for popular goods is one of the arts in domestic economy which is worthy of study. The best way to take lessons in it is to go to a reliable house, and buy a good honest article. Shoddy is always dear at any price. The great One Price Clothing House of H. Frank, 40 Monroe street, now known as Twelfth street, is always supplied with the best of fabrics for gentlemen's and children's wear. Frank spares no pains to procure all the new styles of home or foreign production. In addition to his large stock of fine clothing can be found substantial low priced goods, such as overcoats for four dollars, heavy all wool double and twist cassimeres pants for men's wear at four dollars and fifty cents, children's suits at four dollars, &c., &c. Don't forget the name and number, H. Frank, 40 Monroe street, sign of the green front.
